Reports.

Drew Adams, Cherokee, division 4, district 13, enrolled 55 first day. Average attendance for first month, 58.

Scott Boyd, Rocky Valley school, enrolled 56 of the 62 in the district. Average attendance for the month, 44. Mr. Boyd says "bright prospects for enrolling every pupil in the district."

H. R. Skaggs, Terryville, enrollment 47. Average attendance 44. Mr. Skaggs has organized a literary society which meets on Friday nights and some interest is being aroused. Several patrons are visiting the school. I trust the patrons will speak words of encouragement to Mr. Skaggs and his pupils and "cheer them on" in their work.

Fred Steele, Davisville, enrollment 57. Average attendance for month 48.

Miss Ruth Norton, enrollment for first day, 50. "Total enrollment is less than two-thirds of census report and average attendance is about one-half that of census report." Miss Norton wishes to know how to increase the attendance. Her question is an important one and I suspect many teachers are pondering it.

This department is open for the discussion of this question. Let teachers who have been able to increase the attendance write their method or plan of procedure.

Miss Nancy O'Daniel, Huletts, first day enrolled 24.

McClellan Sammons, Gallup, enrolled 110, only three more in the district. The attendance is "close to 100."

The month's work closed with a written examination, the results of which were good.

A literary society has been organized which meets every Friday evening and the pupils are greatly interested in the work done by this organization.

Mr. Sammons has been making special efforts to have some one who is interested in education to be present and conduct the opening exercises each Monday morning. He says these special exercises "have been of great help to both teacher and pupils." "We have had 38 visitors in our 20 days of work, including parents, ministers, trustees, and Supt. O'Daniel. All have left words of encouragement to the children." "Boys and girls of Gallup say they want to spend Labor Day to improve the school grounds and we are going to make it one of the best days in our school year."

Good for Gallup. The report for the first month is excellent. We expect a good report next month.

As some teachers are interested in "memory gems" we give the following:

The greatest homage we can pay to truth is to use it.

—Emerson.

Prune thy words; the thoughts control.

That o'er thee swell and throng; They will condense within the soul.

And change to purpose strong.

—Newman.

Take good care of the first twenty years of your life. On the use which you make of them your happiness and usefulness in after years will very largely depend. See that they are spent in right habits and cultivating good tastes.

—Anon.

The purpose of education is to give to the body and to the soul all the beauty and all the perfection of which they are capable.

—Plato.

If you have put a new hope in to another's life, you have added glory to your own.

—Anon.

The best thing to do with your TROUBLES is to introduce them to your BLESSINGS.

—Anon.

Make sure that, however good you may be, you have faults; that however dull you may be, you can find out what they are.

Origin of Certain Names.

Valley Forge; village in Chester county, Pa. so named because it is situated at the mouth of Valley Creek, where a forge was erected by Isaac Potts before the Revolution.

Wheeling; city in Ohio county, W. Va., from the Indian, weal-ink, meaning "place of a human head," from the circumstance of the Indiana having displaced the head of a white man on a pole at this point.

Another authority gives whilink, "at the head of the river."

Yankee; this name with various suffixes forms the name of many places in the United States. This name is a corruption of the Massachusetts Indian pronunciation of the word "English" (Yenkees), and was bestowed upon the inhabitants of New England by the people of Virginia when they refused to aid them in a war with the Cherokees, it meaning to them "cowards."

After the battle of Bunker Hill the people of New England, having established a reputation for bravery, accepted the name.

Teach us to so number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.—Psalms 90:12.

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom and getteth understanding.—Prov.

Bridges Time and Space

IT WAS A QUESTION of life or death and the victim's life hung by a slender thread. A difficult operation was necessary. To be successful the operation must be performed at once. The services of a specialist were required, but he was in a distant city.

The specialist was reached over the Long Distance Bell Telephone, the case described and the operation arranged for.

The sufferer's life was saved through the ability of the Universal Bell Telephone Service to bridge time and space.

By the way, have you a Bell Telephone?
